

Common Name: Black Phoebe
Scientific Name: Sayornis nigricans

- 6 – 7”
- Black head, upperparts, breast; white belly and undertail coverts
- Four-syllable song, a rising ‘pee-wee’ followed by a descending ‘pee-wee’; calls include a loud ‘tsee’ and a sharper ‘tsip’
- Common in woodlands, parks; prefers to nest near water