

Jens V. Vindum, California Academy of Sciences

Common Name: Western Yellow-bellied Racer

Scientific Name: (Coluber constrictor mormon)

- Adults:
  - 20 – 36 inches
  - Plain olive or brown above; whitish or pale yellow below; large eyes
  - Anal scale divided
- Young:
  - Brown saddles on back and blotches on sides; blotching evident sometimes to 24 inches
- Found in meadows, chaparral, woodland; near rocks, logs and other basking sights