

Common Name: California Kingsnake
Scientific Name: (Lampropeltis getulus)

- 30 – 82 inches
- Broad dark and light banding or single light stripe down mid-dorsal surface; dark bands and body of striped individuals can be black, brown, or olive; light bands and stripe can be white, cream, or yellow
- Anal scale single
- Found in grassland, chaparral, coastal sage scrub, woodland, farmland and forest; in and near rock outcrops, clumps of vegetation, logs and boards

John H. Tashjian, California Academy of Sciences