

Common Name: Say's Phoebe
Scientific Name: Sayornis saya

- 6 – 7”
- Year-round
- Pale brown-gray above and in throat; dark eyes; cinnamon belly, dark tail
- Song is a fast ‘pit-tse-ar’, often given in fluttering flight; typical call is a thin, plaintive, whistled ‘pee-ee’, slightly downslurred
- Fairly common in dry, open areas, canyons, cliffs; perches on bushes, boulders, fences