

Gerald and Buff Corsi, California Academy of Sciences

Common Name: Side-blotched Lizard
Scientific Name: (Uta stansburiana)

- 1 ½ - 2 ½ inches
- Brown, gray, yellowish, or black above; blotched, speckled, or unpatterned; bluish or black blotch on sides behind forelimbs
- Found in grassland, chaparral, coastal sage scrub and woodland; in and near sandy washes, rocks and other open areas