

Common Name: Red-tailed Hawk

Scientific Name: Buteo jamaicensis

- 22 – 25”
- Year-round
- Dark brown, whitish neck and underparts; broad winged, wide red tail with barred edges
- Call is lower-pitched, single continuous syllable
- Eats wide variety of food, focusing on abundant food
- Defends its territory
- May bring live branches with insect repellent capabilities for nest